Fees or expenses

Brokerage

When buying and selling investments and securities, Somerset Smith Partners will charge both brokerage and agency which is deducted from or added to the value of the transaction.

Investment Advice

For investment advice, Somerset Smith Partners may charge a fee for advice provided to you. The fee will be charged on a time and costs basis. Whether a fee will be charged will be advised before any work is performed. All fees charged will be due 7 days after the date of an invoice.

Conflicts of interest and incentives

Somerset Smith Partners and/or its advisers may receive from an issuer organising broker fees, arranger and lead manager role fees, underwriting fees, and/or discretionary incentive/performance fees, brokerage, or commission for its role in an issue or placement of securities for that issuer.

All of Somerset Smith Partners advisers are required to comply with its Compliance Manual that sets out its Policies and Procedures that govern conflicts management and professional conduct.

In the context of the Securities Industry and the provision of Financial Advice Services, conflicts of interests arise where an employee's interests and /or those of their employer may be contrary to those of a client, or where the employer entity's interests or activities in relation to one client may be contrary to those of another client. This "conflict of roles" is mitigated by Somerset Smith Partners through various means including use of appropriate disclosures, separation of duties and functions, compliance policies and declining to act.

Somerset Smith Partners' Policies and Procedures which are applicable to all advisers include upholding client order precedence, the timely execution and allocation of client orders, fair allocation, restricting sales, trading and research activities with respect to specified securities where Somerset Smith Partners has a role (such as a capital raising or acquisition) in a transaction, employee personal account trading, employee outside interests, gifts and benefit policy, and managing personal conflicts of interest where an employee has a threshold interest of $10,000 or more in certain securities.

Complaints handling and dispute resolution
